PRESS RELEASE

29 April, 2005

Detectives from the Criminal Investigation Department in George Town are investigating the circumstances of an alleged robbery which was reported to police on Thursday 28th April 2005 just after 10:00pm in the vicinity of the C & M building on School House Road in George Town.

It is alleged that three masked men wearing dark clothing approached two George Town residents standing outside their white Chevy Aveo motor car and demanded their money. It was observed that the masked men were in possession of what appeared to be 2 hand guns.

The complainant and friend made their escape by fleeing, leaving behind their motor car which was driven away by the culprits. The police recovered the abandoned vehicle shortly afterwards in the Washington Boulevard area in George Town. The vehicle allegedly contained tools and a hand bag with personal effects.

Detectives are asking anyone with information about the incident to call the Criminal Investigation Department at 244 2916 or Cayman Crime Stoppers at 800 8477. The RCIP reminds the public that all Cayman Crime Stoppers calls are answered in Miami or Canada where callers remain anonymous.

Cash rewards of up to CI$1000.00 are granted by Crime Stoppers for information leading to an arrest for any crime within the Cayman Islands.

The matter remains under investigation by the C.I.D.
