PRESS RELEASE

Tuesday 19th April 2005

Serious Assault

On Monday 18 April at 6.14pm police were called to a fight involving a number of persons including a security guard at a North Church Street complex. On their arrival three suspects had left the scene.

The security guard was left with a stab wound. The security guard knew the main suspect and at 7.50 police arrested a 31-year-old Jamaican national from West Bay. Police also arrested a 33-year-old George Town Caymanian male after further investigation. The security guard was eventually released from hospital after suffering a superficial stab wound. CID are continuing with their enquiries.

Burglary

Two burglaries were reported overnight. On 19 April at 5.06am police received a call from a Prospect resident that had heard a person down stairs in his residence. On arrival of police the suspect had fled. CID are currently dealing with the investigation.

CID are also investigating another incident when police were called to a West Bay address at 5.26am on Monday 19 April after the occupant found that her property had been entered during the night. Stolen were cash, passport and a 2004 Chrysler vehicle, which had been parked outside. Enquiries continue.
