1. This Law may be cited as the Music and Dancing (Control) Law (2012 Revision).

2. In this Law, unless the context otherwise requires-
   “Board” has the meaning ascribed to it in the Liquor Licensing Law (2000 Revision);
   “Chairman” means the Chairman of the Board;
   “exempted premises” means-
     (a) cinemas licensed under the Cinematograph Law (2009 Revision);
     (b) premises being used for bonafide dramatic entertainment;
     (c) areas in hotels which are not open to the general public and with respect to which no charge is made for admission; and
     (d) town halls;
   “hotel” has the meaning ascribed to it in the Liquor Licensing Law (2000 Revision);
   “licensed” and its cognates means licensed under this Law;
   “permitted days” means days other than Good Fridays, Christmas Days and Sundays;
   “permitted hours” means those hours of permitted days in which licensed premises are not ordered by the Board to be closed to the public; and
   “premises subject to this Law” means premises-
     (a) with respect to which a charge is made for admission;
     (b) where food or refreshment is supplied to the public for a charge; or
     (c) which are licensed under the Liquor Licensing Law (2000 Revision), but do not include exempted premises.

3. (1) No person having control of any premises subject to this Law shall on or in such premises or on or in any public or other place adjacent to or in the immediate vicinity of such premises cause or permit any dancing or the playing of music unless-

   (a) the premises are licensed in that behalf; and
(b) the time of such dancing or playing is during permitted hours of a permitted day.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(b) music may be played on Sunday, Good Friday and Christmas Day in a restaurant or hotel, being premises subject to this Law, provided the following conditions are observed-

(a) the music is pre-recorded music of a soft, background nature, not to be heard beyond the boundaries of the property on which it is played;

(b) the time during which it is played shall be between the hours of 9.00 a.m. and 11.45 p.m.; and

(c) dancing is not permitted.

Categories of licences

4. Licences are of three categories as follows-

(a) general licences granted for one year or the unexpired portion of a year terminating on 30th September;

(b) occasional licences granted for periods of from one to six consecutive days; and

(c) temporary licences granted to the holders of temporary licences under the Liquor Licensing Law (2000 Revision), for the duration of such licences.

2000 Revision

Applications for licences

5. (1) Applications for the grant of licences shall be made in writing to the Chairman in the form prescribed in the Schedule-

(a) in the case of general licences, not less than twenty-one days before the 1st March, June, September or December;

(b) in the case of occasional and temporary licences, not less than seven days before the licence is required.

(2) Applications for renewal of general licences shall be made in writing to the Chairman in the form prescribed in the Schedule not less than twenty-one days before the 1st September.

(3) Applications for variation of licences shall be made in writing to the Chairman in the form prescribed in the Schedule not less than twenty-one days before the variation is desired.

Grants of licences

6. (1) General licences and the renewal thereof may be granted by the Board.

(2) Occasional and temporary licences may be granted by the Chairman.

(3) Variation of licences (change of premises or change of licensee) may be granted pro tempore by the Chairman subject to confirmation by the Board at the next annual or quarterly meeting thereof.
7. The conditions applying to the grant, transfer and renewal of licences shall mutatis mutandis, be the same as the conditions applying to the grant of liquor licences under the Liquor Licensing Law (2000):

Provided that where on licensed premises there has been committed an offence contrary to this Law or the Liquor Licensing Law (2000 Revision) leading to the conviction of the offender or where other good cause exists, the Chairman, within one month of such conviction or of his becoming aware of such cause, may suspend the relevant licence until the next session of the Board, and the Board at such session, after hearing the licensee and any objections to the continuation of the licence, may raise the suspension or revoke or refuse to renew the licence:

Provided further that in the event of the Board raising any such suspension, it may order the payment from public funds to the licensee concerned of a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars by way of full and final compensation for all loss suffered by reason of such suspension and such order shall take effect accordingly and shall not be the subject of any appeal to, or review by, any court.

8. The Board shall consider the grant of licences either at the termination of the other business transacted at its sessions or together with such other business as may be convenient and where licences are granted shall issue a certificate as prescribed in the Schedule.

9. (1) The Board shall, at its annual general meetings in September, by order, prescribe what hours of permitted days are permitted hours for the purpose of this Law and cause such orders to be gazetted.

(2) The Chairman may, from time to time, grant extensions of permitted hours in respect of special occasions either generally or in the case of a particular licence.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Law, the Board may grant permission for dancing and the playing of music, on or in licensed premises, outside of permitted hours whenever New Year’s Eve falls on a Saturday, and, upon the grant of any such permission, dancing and the playing of music shall be permitted on or in licensed premises, subject to the condition that music shall not be heard beyond the boundaries of the property on which it is played; and the hours covered by any such permission shall in respect of licensed premises, during the duration of such permission, be deemed to be permitted hours for the purposes of this Law.

10. Premises licensed under this Law shall display a sign on the outside thereof in the form prescribed in the Schedule.
11. Licensed premises shall be open for inspection by constables at all reasonable times.

12. (1) An application for the grant, variation or renewal of a licence shall be accompanied by the application fee prescribed in the Schedule.

(2) An applicant shall, in addition to the application fee specified in subsection (1), pay the fee prescribed in the Schedule for the category of licence applied for.

(3) Where the grant, variation or renewal of a licence is refused, three-quarters of the licence fee paid on application shall be returned to the applicant.

13. (1) A person who contravenes section 3 is commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for one month.

(2) A person who-
   (a) makes any statement orally or in writing in the truth of which he does not believe (the onus of proving his belief being upon him) calculated to deceive or mislead the Board, its Chairman or any member thereof in connection with its business under this Law; or
   (b) obstructs any constable in the execution of his duty under section 11, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five hundred dollars and to imprisonment for one month.

14. The Governor in Cabinet may make regulations for the purpose of the administration of this Law.
