A BILL FOR A LAW TO AMEND THE JUDGES EMOLUMENTS AND ALLOWANCES LAW (2006 REVISION) TO MAKE PROVISION FOR THE LAW TO APPLY TO MAGISTRATES; TO ENHANCE THE EMPLOYMENT BENEFITS AVAILABLE TO MAGISTRATES; AND FOR INCIDENTAL AND CONNECTED PURPOSES
THE JUDGES EMOLUMENTS AND ALLOWANCES (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2016

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to amend the Judges Emoluments and Allowances Law (2006 Revision) to place Magistrates on a separate judicial salary scale and within a separate pensions scheme along with judges, in order to recognize their independence as a part of the judiciary and their separation from the general Public Service.

Consequently, the Bill makes provision for Magistrates to become eligible to participate in the defined contributions part of the Judicial Pensions Plan from 1st January, 2016.

The Bill also makes provision for enhanced terms and conditions of employment for Magistrates.

Clause 1 provides for the citation and the commencement date of the proposed Law.

Clause 2 amends the short title to reflect the expanded application of the Law to include Magistrates.

Clause 3 amends section 2 of the Law by repealing and replacing subsection (1) to make provision for Magistrates to come within the operation of the Law, in particular to be eligible to receive pensions and other allowances and emoluments. It further provides for the enhancement of the terms and conditions of service of Magistrates and the express statutory protection of those terms and conditions of service.
