A LAW TO AMEND THE PROPERTY (MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS) LAW (2011 REVISION), TO CORRECT DEFICIENCIES AND TECHNICAL ERRORS IN THAT LAW; AND FOR INCIDENTAL AND CONNECTED PURPOSES

ENACTED by the Legislature of the Cayman Islands.

1. This Law may be cited as the Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Amendment) Law, 2016.

2. The Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Law (2011 Revision), in this Law referred to as the “principal Law”, is amended in section 5(1) by deleting the words “under the hand of the assignor” and substituting the words “signed by the assignor or the assignor’s agent lawfully authorised in writing”.

3. The principal Law is amended by inserting after section 5 the following section -

5A. (1) An assignment of an equitable interest subsisting at the time of the assignment may be made only -

(a) in writing, signed by the person assigning the interest or that person’s agent lawfully authorised in writing; or

(b) by will.
(2) However, subsection (1) shall not apply to the creation or operation of a constructive, implied or resulting trust.”.

4. The principal Law is amended in section 6 by deleting the words “shares in an ordinary company incorporated under the Companies Law (2011 Revision) or”.

5. The principal Law is amended by inserting after section 6 the following section -

6A. In a deed, contract, will, order or other instrument, unless the context otherwise requires -

(a) “month” means a calendar month;
(b) “person” includes a company or corporation;
(c) the singular includes the plural and vice versa; and
(d) the masculine includes the feminine and vice versa.”.

6. The principal Law is amended in section 8 by inserting after subsection (5) the following subsection -

“(6) For the avoidance of doubt, subsection (4) shall not limit or otherwise affect the application of the Electronic Transactions Law (2003 Revision) to an instrument or to writing, or the signing of an instrument or writing, mentioned in another section of this Law.”.

7. The principal Law is amended by inserting after section 8 the following sections -

8A. (1) A person who holds a power may disclaim it by a deed executed before exercising the power.

(2) From the making of the disclaimer -

(a) the person cannot exercise the power; and
(b) unless the instrument that created the power otherwise provides, anyone else who also held the power immediately before the disclaimer may exercise the power.

(3) In this section -

“exercise”, a power, includes joining in its exercise; and “power” includes a power coupled with an interest.
8B. (1) This section applies if -

(a) an instrument (the “empowering instrument”) creates a power;
(b) the empowering instrument authorises or requires the power to be exercised by deed or another type of non-testamentary instrument (an “instrument of exercise”); and
(c) a particular instrument of exercise is executed as a deed in the ordinary way.

(2) The instrument of exercise is, so far as its execution is concerned, taken to be a valid exercise of the power.

(3) Subsection (2) applies even if the empowering instrument expressly requires an instrument of exercise to be executed with an additional or other form of execution or solemnity.

(4) However, subsection (2) shall not affect a requirement under the empowering instrument that, before exercising the power -

(a) a particular person’s consent is required; or
(b) an act, not relating to the mode of executing an instrument of exercise, is to be performed.

(5) In this section -

“executed” includes attested.

8C. Section 9 of the Statute of Frauds, 1677 of Parliament is repealed to the extent the section applies to the Islands.”.

8. The principal Law is amended by inserting after section 9 the following section -

10. (1) Section 5 of the principal Law as in force immediately before the commencement of the Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Amendment) Law, 2016 (hereinafter referred to as the “amending Law”) shall continue to apply for assignments of debts and things in action before the commencement of the amending Law.

(2) Sections 5A, 6A, 8A and 8B shall only apply for a document made or an event that happens after the commencement of the amending Law.”.

Passed by the Legislative Assembly the 24th day of October, 2016.

Juliana O’Connor-Connolly
Speaker.
