OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to amend the Banks and Trust Companies Law (2018 Revision) (“the principal Law”) to empower the Cayman Islands Monetary Authority (“the Authority”) to require licensees providing company management services to comply with Part 8 of the Limited Liability Partnership Law, 2017 and to require a trust company to disclose its status as a trustee. The Bill also seeks to require banks or a Cayman banking group to make public disclosures and provides for incidental and connected purposes.

Clause 1 provides for the short title of the legislation.

Clause 2 seeks to amend section 13 of the principal Law to require an auditor to give notice to the Authority where the auditor suspects that Part 8 of the Limited Liability Partnership Law, 2017 is being contravened by a licensee who is a “corporate services provider” as defined in that Part.

Clause 3 seeks to amend section 15 of the principal Law to provide an obligation which requires a person carrying on trust business when acting in the capacity as a trustee of a trust to disclose that status to persons conducting relevant financial business under Schedule 6 of the Proceeds of Crime Law (2019 Revision) when entering into a business relationship or one-off transaction with such persons.

Clause 4 seeks to amend section 18 of the principal Law to enable the Authority to sanction a licensee that contravenes Part 8 of the Limited Liability Partnership Law, 2017.

Clause 5 seeks to amend the principal Law to introduce a new section 18A which empowers the Authority to require a licensee holding a licence to carry on banking business or a Cayman banking group to make public disclosures as may be specified by the Authority.

Clause 6 seeks to amend section 22 of the principal Law to give a Justice of the Peace the power to issue a search warrant to the Authority where there is reason to believe that an offence has been committed against Part 8 of the Limited Liability Partnership Law, 2017.
