- (3) Any service provided by the Department in the exercise of functions conferred on it by this section, or any service the provision of which is facilitated by the Department, may be provided for the family of a particular child in need or for any member of the child’s family, if it is provided with a view to safeguarding or promoting the child’s welfare.
- (4) The Cabinet may by Order amend Part 1 of Schedule 2, and an amendment may include adding another duty or power to those set out in Part 1 of Schedule 2.
- (5) Before determining what, if any, services to provide, or facilitate the provision of, for a particular child in need pursuant to the functions conferred on it by this section, the Department shall, so far as is practicable and consistent with the child’s welfare —
- (a) ascertain the wishes and feelings of the child regarding the provision of those services; and
 - (b) give due consideration, having regard to the age and understanding of the child, to the wishes and feelings of the child as the Department is able to ascertain.
- (6) The services provided by the Department in the exercise of functions conferred on it by this section may include giving assistance in kind or, in exceptional circumstances, in cash, where financial assistance is not being provided by any other entity or where additional financial assistance is needed.

- (7) Assistance may be unconditional or subject to conditions, and may include the repayment of the assistance or of its value (in whole or in part), except where subsection (9) applies.
- (8) Where the Department provides, or facilitates the provision of, any assistance, or imposes any conditions on any assistance provided, the Department shall have regard to —
 - (a) the means of —
 - (i) the child concerned; and
 - (ii) the parents of the child or any person having parental responsibility for the child; and
 - (b) where the Department facilitates the provision of assistance by another entity, any other conditions imposed by that other entity.
- (9) Where a person receives financial assistance from the Department of Financial Assistance, the person is not liable to make any repayment of the financial assistance, except where required in accordance with the Financial Assistance Act, 2022.
- (10) For the purposes of this Part —
 - (a) a child shall be taken to be in need if —
 - (i) the child is unlikely to achieve or maintain, or to have the opportunity of achieving or maintaining, a reasonable standard of health or development without the provision of services by the Department under this Part;
 - (ii) the child's health or development is likely to be significantly impaired, or further impaired, without the provision of those services; or
 - (iii) the child has a disability;
 - (b) “development” means physical, intellectual, emotional, social or behavioural development;
 - (c) “family”, in relation to a child in need, includes a person who has parental responsibility for the child and any other person with whom the child has been living; and
 - (d) “health” means physical or mental health.”.

19. The principal Act is amended by repealing sections 20 and 21.

Amendment of section 22 - provision of accommodation for children: general

20. The principal Act is amended in section 22 as follows —

- (a) by repealing subsection (2) and substituting the following subsection —
“(2) The Department may provide accommodation for any child in need whose welfare the Department considers is likely to be seriously prejudiced if it does not provide the child with accommodation.”; and
- (b) by repealing subsection (4) and substituting the following subsection —
“(4) The Department may provide accommodation for any person who has reached the age of sixteen but who is under twenty-four years of age in a children’s home or other accommodation which takes children who have reached the age of sixteen, if the Department considers that to do so would safeguard or promote the welfare of the person.”.

Amendment of section 25 - provision of accommodation and maintenance by the Department for children whom it is looking after

21. The principal Act is amended in section 25 as follows —

- (a) in subsection (2) as follows —
 - (i) in paragraph (a) —
 - (A) by deleting the word “him” and substituting the words “the child”; and
 - (B) in subparagraph (ii), by deleting the word “his” and substituting the words “the child”;
 - (ii) by repealing paragraphs (b) and (c); and
 - (iii) in paragraph (d) as follows —
 - (A) by deleting the word “him” and substituting the words “the child”; and
 - (B) by deleting the word “registered”;
- (b) by inserting after subsection (4) the following subsections —
 - “(4A) A person is not eligible to be a departmental foster parent unless the person is at least twenty-five years of age.
 - (4B) Notwithstanding subsection (4A), the Department may place a child with a person who has not attained the age of twenty-five years but who is at least eighteen years of age, if after having regard to any relevant regulations made with respect to placement of children under subsection (2)(a), the Department determines that the placement would not prejudice the welfare of the child and would be in the best interests of the child.

- (4C) The Department shall not place more than three children (“the usual fostering limit”) with a person unless —
- (a) the children concerned are all siblings of each other; or
 - (b) the Department exempts the person from the usual fostering limit.
- (4D) In considering whether to exempt a person from the usual fostering limit, the Department shall have regard to —
- (a) the number of children the person proposes to foster;
 - (b) the arrangements which the person proposes for the care and accommodation of the children who are to be fostered;
 - (c) the intended and likely relationship between the person and the children who are to be fostered;
 - (d) the period of time for which the person proposes to foster the children;
 - (e) whether the welfare of the children who are to be fostered (and of any other children who are or will be living in the accommodation) will be safeguarded and promoted; and
 - (f) whether the child who is to be fostered requires emergency or immediate placement.
- (4E) Where the Department exempts a person under subsection (4D), it shall inform the person by notice in writing —
- (a) that the person is so exempted;
 - (b) of the children, described by name, whom the person may foster; and
 - (c) of any condition to which the exemption is subject.
- (4F) The Department may at any time by notice in writing —
- (a) vary or cancel an exemption; or
 - (b) impose, vary or cancel a condition to which the exemption is subject,
- and, in considering whether to do so, the Department shall have regard in particular to the considerations mentioned in subsection (4D).
- (4G) The procedure established under section 29 shall apply in relation to the consideration of any representations (including any complaint) made to the Department about the discharge of its functions under —
- (a) subsection (4B); or
 - (b) subsections (4D), (4E) and (4F) by a person exempted or seeking to be exempted under the applicable subsection.

- (4H) In carrying out any consideration of representations under subsection (4G), the Department shall comply with any regulations made by the Cabinet under section 29(3) and (4).
- (4I) A person shall not foster a child unless the person is a departmental foster parent.
- (4J) A person who is a departmental foster parent shall not foster a child otherwise than in accordance with this section or any regulations made under the Act in relation to departmental foster parents.”;
- (c) by repealing subsections (8) and (9) and substituting the following subsections —
 - “(8) Where the Department provides accommodation for a child whom it is looking after, subject to the provisions of this Part and so far as is reasonably practicable and consistent with the welfare of the child, the Department shall ensure that —
 - (a) the accommodation is near the child’s home; and
 - (b) where the Department is also providing accommodation for a sibling of the child, the child and the sibling of the child are accommodated together.
 - (9) Where the Department provides accommodation for a child whom it is looking after and the child has a disability, the Department shall, so far as is reasonably practicable, ensure that the accommodation is suitable to the particular needs of the child.”; and
- (d) by inserting after subsection (10) the following subsection —
 - “(11) A person who contravenes subsection (4I) or (4J) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars.”.

Amendment of section 26 - advice and assistance for certain children

- 22. The principal Act is amended in section 26 by repealing subsection (2) and substituting the following subsection —

- “(2) In this Part, “a person qualifying for advice and assistance” means a person within the Islands who is under twenty-four years of age and who was, at any time after reaching the age of sixteen years but while still a child —
 - (a) looked after by the Department;
 - (b) accommodated in a children’s home; or
 - (c) accommodated in any residential care home,for a consecutive period of at least three months but who is no longer so looked after or accommodated.”.

Repeal and substitution of section 27 - use of accommodation for restricting liberty

23. The principal Act is amended by repealing section 27 and substituting the following section —

“Use of accommodation for restricting liberty

- 27. (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, a child who is being looked after by the Department may not be placed, and, if placed, may not be kept, in accommodation provided for the purpose of restricting liberty (“secure accommodation”) unless —
- (a) it appears that the child has a history of absconding or is likely to abscond from any other description of accommodation, and, if the child absconds, the child is likely to suffer significant harm;
 - (b) if the child is kept in any other description of accommodation, the child is likely to injure himself or herself, or other persons;
 - (c) the child is charged with, or convicted of an offence involving violence;
 - (d) the child has been remanded or detained and committed to the care of the Department under section 14 or 15 of the Youth Justice Act (2021 Revision);
 - (e) the child is the subject of a youth rehabilitation order which imposes a detention residence requirement under section 27 of the Youth Justice Act (2021 Revision); or
 - (f) the child is accommodated at —
 - (i) a facility where the liberty of persons is restricted on the order or recommendation of a medical officer; or
 - (ii) a facility outside the Islands where the liberty of persons is restricted if considered necessary by mental health professionals.
- (2) Where a child who is being looked after by the Department is to be placed and kept in secure accommodation, the Department shall not, of its own volition, use any of the following facilities or places as secure accommodation —
- (a) a detention facility, as defined by section 2 of the Youth Justice Act (2021 Revision);
 - (b) a prison, as defined by section 2 of the Prisons Act (2021 Revision); or
 - (c) any other place or facility as may be prescribed.

- (3) The maximum period beyond which a child may not be kept in secure accommodation without the authority of the court is seventy-two hours, whether consecutively or seventy-two hours in aggregate, in any period of twenty-eight consecutive days.
- (4) An application to the court under this section shall be made by the Department.
- (5) An application under subsection (4) may be made ex parte where —
 - (a) there is reasonable cause to believe that a child is suffering, or is likely to suffer, significant harm; or
 - (b) there is some genuine and exceptional urgency and there is no time to give notice.
- (6) Where an application under subsection (4) is made ex parte, it shall be supported by a written statement of the Department's reasons for making the application ex parte.
- (7) A court hearing an application under this section shall determine whether the relevant criteria for keeping a child in secure accommodation are satisfied.
- (8) If a court determines that the relevant criteria are satisfied, it shall make an order authorizing the child to be kept in secure accommodation and specifying the maximum period for which the child may be so kept.
- (9) On an adjournment of the hearing of an application under this section, a court may make an interim order permitting the child to be kept in secure accommodation during the period of the adjournment.
- (10) Subject to subsection (11), where an order or interim order is made under subsection (8) or (9) respectively, the order shall provide that the matter is to be reviewed by the court in the presence of all relevant parties at the end of the period specified in the order during which the child may be kept in secure accommodation.
- (11) Where an order or interim order made under subsection (8) or (9) respectively is based on an ex parte application —
 - (a) the order shall provide that the matter is to be reviewed by the court in the presence of all relevant parties within the period specified in the order; and
 - (b) the Department shall serve on the relevant person, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the making of the order —
 - (i) notice of the order and of its terms; and
 - (ii) a copy of the statement of the Department's reasons which supported its application for the order.

- (12) Where authority of the court to keep a child in secure accommodation is given, any period during which the child is kept in secure accommodation before the giving of that authority shall be disregarded for the purpose of any further placement in secure accommodation after the period authorized by the court has expired.
- (13) Where —
- (a) a child was placed in secure accommodation at any time between 12 noon on the day before and 12 noon on the day after a public general holiday or a Sunday; and
 - (b) during that period the maximum period specified in subsection (3) expires,
- the maximum period shall be treated as if it did not expire until 12 noon on the first day after the public general holiday or Sunday which is not such a day.
- (14) The maximum period for which a court may authorize a child to be kept in secure accommodation is six months or —
- (a) if the child has been remanded as referred to in subsection (1)(d), the period of that remand;
 - (b) if the child is the subject of a youth rehabilitation order which imposes a detention residence requirement as referred to in subsection (1)(e), the duration of the youth rehabilitation order; or
 - (c) if the child is accommodated at a facility referred to in subsection (1)(f), the period ordered by the court on the recommendation of a medical officer or a mental health professional.
- (15) No court shall exercise the powers conferred by this section in respect of a child who is not legally represented in that court unless, having been informed of his or her right to apply for legal aid in accordance with the Legal Aid Act, 2015 and having had the opportunity to do so, the child refused or failed to apply.
- (16) The Cabinet may by regulations provide that —
- (a) this section shall not apply to a description of children specified in the regulations;
 - (b) this section shall have effect in relation to children of a description specified in the regulations subject to modifications as may be so specified;
 - (c) any other provisions shall have effect for the purpose of calculating the maximum period referred to in subsection (3), including determining the expiration of that period; and

- (d) any other provisions as may be so specified shall have effect for the purpose of determining whether a child of a description specified in the regulations may be placed or kept in secure accommodation.”.

28. The principal Act is amended in section 32D(a) by deleting the words “after consultation with the Director of Public Prosecutions”.

Repeal and substitution of section 32E - assessment and investigation of report by Department

29. The principal Act is amended by repealing section 32E and substituting the following sections —

“Assessment and investigation of notification and statement

32E. Within three days after receiving a notification accompanied by a statement about a child under section 32A, the Department shall assess the information in the notification and statement and after the assessment, may —

- (a) refer the notification and the statement to the Commissioner of Police for further investigation so that the child may be brought before a court as the case may require; and
- (b) inform the person having custody, care or control of the child, of the notification and the statement, unless in the opinion of the Department, the information would cause physical or emotional harm to any person, endanger the safety of the child or prejudice an investigation under paragraph (a).

Sharing of updates and the notification and statement

32F. Whether or not the Department refers the notification and the statement to the Commissioner of Police under section 32E(a), the Department may —

- (a) where the notifier of abuse or neglect is a person under section 32A(2)(a), inform the person of any developments or updates which may assist with the treatment of, or the provision of health services to, the child, unless in the opinion of the Department, the information would cause physical or emotional harm to any person, endanger the safety of the child or, if applicable, prejudice an investigation under section 32E(a);
- (b) where the notifier of abuse or neglect is a person under section 32A(2)(i) or (k), inform the person of any developments or updates which may assist with the delivery of services to the child, or the supervision of the delivery of services to the child, unless in the opinion of the Department, the information would cause physical or emotional harm to any person, endanger the safety of the child or, if applicable, prejudice an investigation under section 32E(a); and
- (c) share the notification and statement with —
 - (i) an attorney-at-law who requires it in connection with a legal matter relating to the child; and
 - (ii) a guardian ad litem of the child.

Policies and training regarding safeguarding procedures

- 32G.(1) A public authority or a private entity in which persons in positions under section 32A(2) are appointed, are employed or otherwise assume such positions, paid or unpaid, shall ensure that those persons undergo training in relation to safeguarding —
- (a) within twelve months of the date of commencement of the Children (Amendment) Act, 2024; or
 - (b) within six months following the person being appointed to, employed in or otherwise assuming the position,
- whichever is sooner.
- (2) A public authority or a private entity in which persons in positions under section 32A(2) are appointed, are employed or otherwise assume such positions shall —
- (a) have a written policy that complies with this Act regarding its safeguarding procedures and its procedures for reporting abuse and neglect of children; and
 - (b) provide the written policy referred to in paragraph (a) to such persons.

Restriction on employment in position under section 32A(2)

- 32H.(1) Before a person is appointed to, is employed in or otherwise assumes a position under section 32A(2), paid or unpaid, the person shall be subjected to a screening process in accordance with regulations made by the Cabinet.
- (2) After the screening process referred to in subsection (1), where it is discovered that a person has been convicted of, or served a sentence for, a prescribed offence, the person shall not be appointed to, employed in or otherwise assume a position under section 32A(2).
- (3) Where the circumstances of a person change following the screening process referred to in subsection (1) and those circumstances would, or are likely to, result in the person not being or remaining appointed to, employed in or otherwise in a position under section 32A(2), the person shall notify the employer or any other person prescribed by regulations of the relevant change in circumstances.
- (4) Where an employer or any other relevant person does not conduct the screening process in accordance with the regulations, any person may make a complaint to the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.
- (5) Where a person is required to make a declaration or provide information under the Act and the person makes a false declaration or provides false or misleading information, the person commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of six months, or to both.”.

Amendment of section 33 - care and supervision orders

- 30. The principal Act is amended in section 33(3) by inserting after the word “married” the words “or in a civil partnership”.

Insertion of section 35A - care plan

- 31. The principal Act is amended by inserting after section 35 the following section —

“Care plan

- 35A.(1) Where the Department makes an application to the court for a care order under section 33, the Department, within a period of time as the court may direct, shall prepare a care plan for the future care of the child, which may include expectations of parents of, and persons with parental responsibility for, the child.
- (2) Where an application for a care order is pending, the Department shall keep any care plan prepared by the Department under review and, where the Department is of the opinion that a change to the care plan is required, the Department shall revise the care plan, or make a new care plan accordingly.

- (3) A care plan shall contain the prescribed information, in the prescribed manner.
- (4) In this section, a reference to a care order does not include an interim care order made under section 40.”.

Amendment of section 36 - parental contact, etc., with children in care

32. The principal Act is amended in section 36 as follows —

- (a) in subsection (2), by deleting the words “responsible for the welfare of children”; and
- (b) in subsection (4), by inserting after the words “authorising the Department” the words “to refuse”.

Insertion of sections 38A and 38B - power of court to order participation in treatment programme; power of court to order drug testing

33. The principal Act is amended by inserting after the Division heading “Powers of court” the following sections —

“Power of court to order participation in treatment programme

- 38A.(1) The court, in connection with any family proceedings, may order that a party to the proceedings participate in an appropriate treatment programme as the court may specify that would, in the court’s opinion, help to establish, maintain or improve the involvement of the relevant party in the life of the child concerned.
- (2) Where the court makes an order under subsection (1) —
- (a) the order shall specify —
 - (i) that the counselor or therapist provide the court with written notification of sessions missed by any relevant party; and
 - (ii) the date by which the counselor or therapist shall submit a report to the court in respect of the treatment; and
 - (b) the court shall inform the subject of the order of the consequences of any failure to comply with the order.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, “treatment programme” includes a programme designed to counsel the parties or rehabilitate behavioural issues.

Power of court to order drug testing

- 38B.(1) The court may make an order requiring a party to family proceedings to undergo a drug test where the court is satisfied that —
- (a) there is sufficient evidence before it to warrant the making of such an order; and
 - (b) it is in the best interests of the child to make such an order.
- (2) Where the court makes an order under subsection (1), it shall inform the subject of the order of the consequences of any failure to comply with the order.
- (3) For the purpose of this section, “drug” includes alcohol and any controlled drug specified in Schedule 1 to the Misuse of Drugs Act (2017 Revision).”.

Insertion of section 40A - power to include exclusion requirement in interim care order

34. The principal Act is amended by inserting after section 40 the following section —

“Power to include exclusion requirement in interim care order

- 40A.(1) The court may include an exclusion requirement in an interim care order where the following conditions are satisfied —
- (a) that there is reasonable cause to believe that, if a person (“the relevant person”) is excluded from a place in which the child lives, the child will cease to suffer, or cease to be likely to suffer, significant harm; and
 - (b) that another person living in the same place where the child lives (whether a parent of the child or some other person) —
 - (i) is able and willing to give to the child the care which it would be reasonable to expect a parent to give the child; and
 - (ii) consents to the inclusion of the exclusion requirement.
- (2) The court may provide that the exclusion requirement is to have effect for a shorter period than the other provisions of the interim care order.
- (3) Where the court makes an interim care order containing an exclusion requirement, the court may attach a power of arrest to the exclusion requirement.
- (4) Where the court attaches a power of arrest to an exclusion requirement of an interim care order, it may provide that the power of arrest is to have effect for a shorter period than the exclusion requirement.

- (5) Any period specified for the purposes of subsection (2) or (4) may be extended by the court (on one or more occasions) on an application to vary or discharge the interim care order.
- (6) Where a power of arrest is attached to an exclusion requirement of an interim care order in accordance with subsection (3), a constable may arrest without warrant any person whom the constable has reasonable cause to believe to be in breach of the requirement.
- (7) If, while an interim care order containing an exclusion requirement is in force, the Department has removed the child from the place where the relevant person is excluded to other accommodation for a continuous period of twenty-four hours, the interim care order shall cease to have effect in so far as it imposes the exclusion requirement.
- (8) For the purposes of this section, an exclusion requirement is any one or more of the following —
 - (a) a provision requiring the relevant person to leave a place in which the relevant person is living with the child;
 - (b) a provision prohibiting the relevant person from entering a place in which the child lives; and
 - (c) a provision excluding the relevant person from a defined area in which a place in which the child lives is situated.”.

- (d) in subsection 4(c), by deleting the word “him” and substituting the words “the child”; and
- (e) by repealing subsection (6) and substituting the following subsection —

“(6) In this section, “specified proceedings” means —

 - (a) any proceedings on an application for a care order or supervision order;

- (b) any proceedings in which the court has given a direction under section 39(1) and has made, or is considering whether to make, an interim care order;
- (c) any proceedings on an application for the discharge of a care order or the variation or discharge of a supervision order;
- (d) any proceedings on an application under section 41(4);
- (e) any proceedings in which the court is considering whether to make a residence order with respect to a child who is the subject of a care order;
- (f) any proceedings with respect to contact between a child who is the subject of a care order and any other person;
- (g) private law proceedings;
- (h) any proceedings under Part 5;
- (i) any proceedings on an appeal against —
 - (i) the making of, or refusal to make, a care order, supervision order or any order under section 36;
 - (ii) the making of, or refusal to make, a residence order with respect to a child who is the subject of a care order;
 - (iii) the variation or discharge, or refusal of an application to vary or discharge, an order of a kind mentioned in subparagraph (i) or (ii);
 - (iv) the refusal of an application under section 41(4); or
 - (v) the making of, or refusal to make, an order under Part 5; or
- (j) any proceedings which are specified for the time being, for the purposes of this section, by rules of court.”.

Insertion of Part 4A - freeing a child for adoption

36. The principal Act is amended by inserting after section 44 the following Part —

“PART 4A - Freeing a child for adoption

Order freeing a child for adoption

- 44A.(1) Where the Department is satisfied that a parent of a child or any person who is not a parent of a child but who has parental responsibility for a child has not achieved the objectives set out in a care plan within the timeframe specified in the care plan, the Department may apply to the court for an order which provides that the child is free to be adopted (“order freeing a child for adoption”).

- (i) any order under the Act; or
 - (ii) any duty arising by virtue of an agreement or the order of a court to make payments, so far as the payments are in respect of the child's maintenance or upbringing for any period after the making of the order, unless —
 - (A) the duty arises by virtue of an agreement which constitutes a trust; or
 - (B) the duty arises by virtue of an agreement which expressly provides that the duty is not to be extinguished by the making of an adoption order; or
 - (b) affect any person's parental responsibility so far as it relates to the period between the making of the section 44 order and the date of revocation of that order.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), if the application is dismissed on the ground that to allow it would not be in the best interests of the child, the former parent who made the application shall not be entitled to make any further application under subsection (1) in respect of the child.
- (6) Subsection (5) shall not apply where the court which dismissed the application gives leave to the former parent to make a further application under subsection (1), but such leave shall not be given unless it appears to the court that because of a change in circumstances or for any other reason it is proper to allow the application to be made.”.

Amendment of section 46 - orders for emergency protection of children

37. The principal Act is amended in section 46 as follows —

- (a) in subsection (1) as follows —
 - (i) by deleting the word “he” wherever it appears and substituting the words “the child”; and
 - (ii) in paragraph (a)(ii), by inserting the word “or” at the end of that subparagraph;
- (b) in subsection (2), by deleting the words “that he is such a person” and substituting the words “that the person is an officer of the Department so authorized”;
- (c) in subsection (3), by repealing paragraph (b) and substituting the following paragraph —
 - “(b) authorizes —

- (i) the removal of the child at any time to accommodation provided by or on behalf of the Department and the child being kept there; or
 - (ii) the prevention of the child's removal from a health care facility, or other place, in which the child was being accommodated immediately before the making of the order; and";
- (d) in subsection 5 as follows —
 - (i) in paragraph (a), by deleting the word "him" and substituting the words "the Department"; and
 - (ii) by deleting the words "allow him" and substituting the words "allow the child";
- (e) in subsections (6), (7) and (8), by deleting the words "him", "he" and "his", wherever they occur and substituting the words "the child";
- (f) in subsection (9) as follows —
 - (i) by deleting the word "he" and substituting the words "the person"; and
 - (ii) by deleting the words "any person" and substituting the words "any other person"; and
- (g) by repealing subsection (10) and substituting the following subsection —

"(10)A person who commits an offence under subsection (9) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of six months, or to both."

Insertion of section 46A - power to include exclusion requirement in emergency protection order

38. The principal Act is amended by inserting after section 46 the following section —

"Power to include exclusion requirement in emergency protection order

- 46A.(1) The court may include an exclusion requirement in an emergency protection order where the following conditions are satisfied —
- (a) that there is reasonable cause to believe that, if a person ("the relevant person") is excluded from a place in which the child lives —
 - (i) in the case of an order made on the ground referred to in section 46(1)(a), the child will not be likely to suffer significant harm, even though the child is not removed as mentioned in section 46(1)(a)(i) or the child does not remain as mentioned in section 46(1)(a)(ii); or

- (ii) in the case of an order made on the ground referred to in section 46(1)(b), the enquiries referred to in that paragraph will cease to be frustrated; and
- (b) that another person living in the same place where the child lives (whether a parent of the child or some other person) —
 - (i) is able and willing to give to the child the care which it would be reasonable to expect a parent to give the child; and
 - (ii) consents to the inclusion of the exclusion requirement.
- (2) The court may provide that the exclusion requirement is to have effect for a shorter period than the other provisions of the emergency protection order.
- (3) Where the court makes an emergency protection order containing an exclusion requirement, the court may attach a power of arrest to the exclusion requirement.
- (4) Where the court attaches a power of arrest to an exclusion requirement of an emergency protection order, it may provide that the power of arrest is to have effect for a shorter period than the exclusion requirement.
- (5) Any period specified for the purposes of subsection (2) or (4) may be extended by the court (on one or more occasions) on an application to vary or discharge the emergency protection order.
- (6) Where a power of arrest is attached to an exclusion requirement of an emergency protection order in accordance with subsection (3), a constable may arrest without warrant any person whom the constable has reasonable cause to believe to be in breach of the requirement.
- (7) If, while an emergency protection order containing an exclusion requirement is in force, the Department has removed the child from the place where the relevant person is excluded to other accommodation for a continuous period of twenty-four hours, the emergency protection order shall cease to have effect in so far as it imposes the exclusion requirement.
- (8) For the purposes of this section, an exclusion requirement is any one or more of the following —
 - (a) a provision requiring the relevant person to leave a place in which the relevant person is living with the child;
 - (b) a provision prohibiting the relevant person from entering a place in which the child lives; and

- (c) a provision excluding the relevant person from a defined area in which a place in which the child lives is situated.”.

Repeal and substitution of section 49 - removal and accommodation of children by police in cases of emergency

39. The principal Act is amended by repealing section 49 and substituting the following section —

“Removal and accommodation of children in cases of emergency

- 49. (1) Where a constable or an officer of the Department has reasonable cause to believe that a child would otherwise be likely to suffer significant harm, the constable or the officer of the Department may —
- (a) remove the child to suitable accommodation; or
 - (b) take steps as are reasonable to ensure that the child’s removal from a health care facility or other place in which the child is then being accommodated is prevented.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act, a child with respect to whom a constable or an officer of the Department has exercised powers under this section is referred to as having been taken into interim emergency protection.
- (3) As soon as is reasonably practicable after taking a child into interim emergency protection, the constable or the officer of the Department concerned shall —
- (a) inform the Department of the steps that have been, and are proposed to be, taken with respect to the child under this section and the reasons for taking them;
 - (b) give details to the Department of the place at which the child is being temporarily held;
 - (c) inform the child (if the child appears capable of understanding) —
 - (i) of the steps that have been taken with respect to the child under this section and of the reasons for taking them; and
 - (ii) of the further steps that may be taken with respect to the child under this section;
 - (d) take steps as are reasonably practicable to discover the wishes and feelings of the child;
 - (e) inform the Commissioner of Police who shall ensure that the case is inquired into by a police officer designated by the Commissioner of Police for the purposes of this section;

- (f) provide the designated officer with the details of the case; and
 - (g) where the child was taken into interim emergency protection by being removed to accommodation which is not provided by or on behalf of the Department, ensure that the child is moved to accommodation which is provided by the Department.
- (4) As soon as is reasonably practicable after taking a child into interim emergency protection, the constable or the officer of the Department shall take steps as are reasonably practicable to inform —
 - (a) the child's parents;
 - (b) every person who is not a parent of the child but who has parental responsibility for the child; and
 - (c) any other person with whom the child was living immediately before being taken into interim emergency protection,of the steps that the constable or the officer of the Department has taken under this section with respect to the child, the reasons for taking them and the further steps that may be taken with respect to the child under this section.
- (5) On completing an inquiry under subsection (3)(e), the designated officer shall order the release of the child from interim emergency protection unless the designated officer has reasonable cause to believe that the child would be likely to suffer significant harm if released.
- (6) A child shall not be kept in interim emergency protection for more than seventy-two hours.
- (7) Where a child is being temporarily held in interim emergency protection, the designated officer shall refer the matter to the Department and upon consideration of the matter, the Department may apply for an emergency protection order.
- (8) While a child is being kept in interim emergency protection the constable, the officer of the Department or the designated officer, as applicable, does not have parental responsibility for the child.
- (9) Notwithstanding subsection (8), the constable, the officer of the Department or the designated officer shall do what is reasonable in all the circumstances of the case for the purpose of safeguarding or promoting the welfare of the child (having regard in particular to the length of the period during which the child will be so protected).
- (10) Where a child is taken into interim emergency protection, the designated officer shall allow —
 - (a) the child's parents;

- (b) a person who is not a parent of the child but who has parental responsibility for the child;
 - (c) a person with whom the child was living immediately before the child was taken into interim emergency protection;
 - (d) a person in whose favour a contact order is in force with respect to the child;
 - (e) a person who is allowed to have contact with the child by virtue of an order under section 36; and
 - (f) a person acting on behalf of any of the persons referred to in paragraphs (a) to (e),
- to have contact with the child as, in the opinion of the designated officer, is both reasonable and in the best interests of the child.
- (11) Where a child who has been taken into interim emergency protection is in accommodation provided by, or on behalf of, the Department, subsection (10) shall have effect as if it referred to the Department rather than to the designated officer.”.

Amendment of section 50 - duty of the Department to investigate

40. The principal Act is amended in section 50 by repealing subsections (9) and (10) and substituting the following subsections —

- “(9) Where the Department makes, or causes to be made, any enquiries under subsection (1), unless the information is exempt from disclosure under subsection (11), a body or person under subsection (10), when requested to do so by the Department, shall disclose relevant information for the purposes of the enquiries.
- (10) For the purposes of subsection (9), a body or person in respect of whom the Department may request information includes —
- (a) the Royal Cayman Islands Police Service;
 - (b) a public authority;
 - (c) an educational institution;
 - (d) a health care facility;
 - (e) a person under section 32A(2);

42. The principal Act is amended in section 52 as follows —

- (a) in subsection (2), by repealing paragraph (c); and
- (b) by repealing subsection (3) and substituting the following subsection —
“(3) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine of thirty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of five years, or to both.”.

Amendment of section 53 - recovery of abducted children, etc.

43. The principal Act is amended in section 53 as follows —

- (a) in subsection (1)(a), by inserting after the word “person” the words “in accordance with section 52”;
- (b) by repealing subsections (4) and (5) and substituting the following subsections —

- “(4) The court may make a recovery order on the application of —
 - (a) a person who has parental responsibility for the child by virtue of a care order or an emergency protection order; or
 - (b) the designated officer, where the child is in interim emergency protection.
- (5) A recovery order shall name the child and —
 - (a) a person who has parental responsibility for the child by virtue of a care order or an emergency protection order; or
 - (b) the designated officer, where the child is in interim emergency protection.”;
- (c) by repealing subsection (10) and substituting the following subsection —
 - “(10) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine of thirty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of five years, or to both.”; and
- (d) in subsection (11), by deleting the words “him or his spouse” and substituting the words “the person or the person’s spouse or civil partner”.

Repeal and substitution of section 54 - refuges for children at risk

- 44. The principal Act is amended by repealing section 54 and substituting the following —

“Abduction of child by parent, person with parental responsibility or guardian

- 54. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a parent, a person with parental responsibility for a child or a guardian of a child takes or sends the child out of the Islands without the appropriate consent, the parent, person with parental responsibility, or guardian commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of thirty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of five years, or to both.
- (2) A person does not commit an offence under subsection (1) if —
- (a) the person does it in the belief that the person whose consent is required —
 - (i) has consented; or
 - (ii) would consent if that person was aware of all the relevant circumstances;
 - (b) the person has taken all reasonable steps to communicate with the other person but has been unable to communicate with the other person; or
 - (c) the other person has unreasonably refused to consent.

- (3) Subsection (2)(c) does not apply if —
 - (a) the person who refused to consent is —
 - (i) a person named in a residence order with whom the child is to live;
 - (ii) a guardian of the child; or
 - (iii) a person who has custody of the child; or
 - (b) the person taking or sending the child out of the Islands is, by so acting, in breach of an order made by a court in the Islands.
- (4) Where, in proceedings for an offence under this section, there is sufficient evidence to raise an issue as to the application of subsection (2), it shall be for the prosecution to prove that that subsection does not apply.
- (5) Where a parent, person with parental responsibility or guardian takes or sends the child out of the Islands with the appropriate consent but then keeps the child, or ensures that the child is kept, out of the lawful control of any person entitled to lawful control of the child, the person commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of thirty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of five years, or to both.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, “appropriate consent” means —
 - (a) the consent of each of the following —
 - (i) a parent of the child;
 - (ii) a person with parental responsibility for the child;
 - (iii) a guardian of the child;
 - (iv) a person named in a residence order with whom the child is to live; and
 - (v) a person who has custody of the child; and
 - (b) where custody of the child is awarded by an order of the court, the leave of the court that awarded custody.

PART 5A - CHILDREN'S HOMES

Meaning of “children’s home”

54A.(1) For the purposes of this Act, “children’s home” —

- (a) means a home which provides (or usually provides or is intended to provide) care and accommodation wholly or mainly

- for more than three children at any one time and which is registered under this Part; and
- (b) does not include a home which is exempted by or under this section or by regulations made for the purposes of this subsection by the Cabinet.
- (2) A child is not cared for and accommodated in a children's home when the child is cared for and accommodated by —
- (a) a parent of the child;
 - (b) a person who is not a parent of the child but who has parental responsibility for the child; or
 - (c) any relative of the child.
- (3) A home is not a children's home if it is —
- (a) a residential care home;
 - (b) a nursing home; or
 - (c) a school.
- (4) A child shall not be treated as cared for and accommodated in a children's home when —
- (a) any person mentioned in subsection (2)(a) or (b) is living at the home; or
 - (b) the person caring for the child is doing so in the person's personal capacity and not in the course of carrying out the person's duties in relation to the home.

Registration of children's homes

- 54B. (1) A person shall not carry on a children's home unless it is registered in accordance with this Part, in a register to be kept for the purposes of this section by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.
- (2) A person who, without reasonable excuse, carries on a children's home in contravention of —
- (a) subsection (1); or
 - (b) a condition to which the registration of the children's home is subject,
- commits an offence.
- (3) A person who commits an offence under subsection (2)(a) is liable on summary conviction —
- (a) to a fine of ten thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of one year, or to both; and

- (b) to a further fine of one hundred dollars per day for each day on which non-compliance occurs after conviction.
- (4) A person who commits an offence under subsection (2)(b) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars.

Application for registration of children's home

54C.(1) An application for registration of a children's home shall —

- (a) be made to the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons by the person (“the applicant”) who wishes to carry on the children's home to which the application relates; and
- (b) be made in the form and manner approved by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, and be accompanied by the following —
 - (i) a copy of a licence granted under section 21 of the Trade and Business Licensing Act (2021 Revision) relating to child-care or, where the applicant is a non-profit organisation, a copy of the relevant licence or registration of the non-profit organisation;
 - (ii) proof that the structure which is the subject of the application complies with fire and safety standards applicable to the Islands; and
 - (iii) written policies regarding the safeguarding procedures which are to be implemented in respect of the children to be accommodated in the intended children's home.
- (2) On an application made under subsection (1), the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may —
 - (a) grant or refuse the application, as the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons thinks fit; or
 - (b) grant the application subject to any conditions as the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons considers appropriate.

Grant or refusal of application

54D.(1) Where the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons proposes to grant an application under section 54C, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall give the applicant written notice of the proposal and any conditions subject to which the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons proposes to grant the application.

- (2) The requirement under subsection (1) for the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons to give written notice does not apply if the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons proposes to grant the application subject only to conditions which —
 - (a) the applicant specified in the application; or
 - (b) the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons and the applicant have subsequently agreed.
- (3) Where the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons proposes to refuse an application under section 54C, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall give written notice of the proposal to the applicant.
- (4) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall provide reasons for the proposal in a written notice under this section.
- (5) Where the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons grants an application under section 54C and registers a children's home, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall notify the Department.

Variation or imposition of conditions

- 54E. (1) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, on his or her own volition or on the application of a person carrying on a children's home, may —
- (a) vary any condition in force with respect to the children's home; or
 - (b) impose an additional condition.
- (2) Where the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons proposes to vary a condition or impose an additional condition, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall give the person carrying on the children's home written notice of the proposal to do so.
- (3) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall provide reasons for the proposal in a written notice under this section.

Cancellation of registration

- 54F. (1) Where it appears to the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons that —
- (a) the conduct of a children's home is not in accordance with regulations made under section 54O;
 - (b) there is reasonable cause to believe that a child is suffering, or is likely to suffer, significant harm; or

- (c) the conduct of a children's home is otherwise unsatisfactory, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall give written notice of the proposal to cancel the registration of the children's home to the person carrying on the children's home.
- (2) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall provide reasons for its proposal in a written notice under this section.
- (3) Without prejudice to subsections (1) and (2), a person who carries on a children's home may provide ninety days' notice to the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons of the person's intention to cease carrying on a children's home and comply with the prescribed requirements.
- (4) Where the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons cancels the registration of a children's home, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall remove it from the register and notify the Department.

Right to make representation

- 54G.(1) A notice given by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons under section 54D, 54E or 54F shall state that within fourteen days after service of the notice, a person on whom it is served may, in writing, require the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons to give the person an opportunity to make representations to the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons concerning the matter.
- (2) Where a notice referred to in subsection (1) is served, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall not determine the matter until —
 - (a) any person on whom the notice was served has made representations to the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons concerning the matter;
 - (b) the period under subsection (1) has elapsed without the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons being required to give the person an opportunity to make representations; or
 - (c) the conditions specified in subsection (3) are satisfied.
 - (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the conditions are that —
 - (a) a person on whom the notice was served has required the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons to give the person an opportunity to make representations to the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons;

- (b) the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons has allowed the person a reasonable period to make representations to the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons; and
 - (c) the person has failed to make representations within that period.
- (4) The representations may be made, at the option of the person making them, in writing or orally.
- (5) Where the person making representations informs the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons that the person desires to make oral representations, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall give the person an opportunity to appear before and to be heard by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, whether in person or by way of videoconference or any other form of communication technology.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), “communication technology” means any electronic device or process that facilitates communication of visual images and audio in real time.

Decision of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons

- 54H.(1) Where the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons decides to adopt a proposal under this Part, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall serve notice in writing of its decision on any person on whom it was required to serve notice of its proposal.
- (2) A notice under this section shall be accompanied by a notice explaining the right to apply for a reconsideration of the decision conferred by section 54I and the right of appeal conferred by section 54J.
 - (3) A decision of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, other than a decision to grant an application for registration subject only to conditions mentioned in section 54D(2) or to refuse an application for registration, shall not take effect —
 - (a) if an application for a reconsideration is not made, until the end of the period of twenty-one days referred to in section 54I(1);
 - (b) subject to paragraph (d), if an application for a reconsideration is made, until the application is determined;
 - (c) if an appeal is not brought, until the end of the period of twenty-eight days referred to in section 54J(2); and
 - (d) if an appeal is brought, until the appeal is determined or abandoned.

Reconsideration of decision

- 54I. (1) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may apply in the prescribed manner to the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons for a reconsideration of the decision within twenty-one days after the date on which notice of the relevant decision is given to the person.
- (2) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may refuse to reconsider a decision where the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons has already reconsidered that decision or a decision relating to substantially the same issue.
- (3) Within twenty-one days after receiving an application for a reconsideration of a decision, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall provide to the aggrieved person —
- (a) the decision of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, in writing, based on the reconsideration; or
- (b) a notice, in writing, of the refusal of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons to reconsider the decision.
- (4) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall not appeal to the Grand Court against the decision unless the person has first sought a reconsideration of that decision under this section and —
- (a) obtained, in writing, a decision based on the reconsideration of that decision; or
- (b) has been notified, in writing, by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons of the refusal of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons to reconsider that decision.

Appeals

- 54J. (1) An appeal against a decision of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons regarding the application for a reconsideration of the decision of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons under this Part shall lie to the Grand Court.
- (2) An appeal shall not be brought by a person more than twenty-eight days after service on the person of notice of the decision regarding the application for a reconsideration of the decision of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.
- (3) On an appeal the Grand Court may in particular —
- (a) confirm the decision of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons or direct that it shall not have effect;

- (b) vary any condition in force by virtue of this Part with respect to the children's home to which the appeal relates;
- (c) direct that any condition in force by virtue of this Part shall cease to have effect; or
- (d) direct that any condition as it thinks fit shall have effect with respect to the children's home.

Welfare of children in children's home

54K.(1) Where a child is accommodated in a children's home, the person carrying on the home shall —

- (a) safeguard and promote the welfare of the child; and
 - (b) advise, assist and befriend the child with a view to promoting the welfare of the child when the child ceases to be so accommodated.
- (2) Before making any decision with respect to a child referred to in subsection (1), the person carrying on the home shall, so far as is reasonably practicable, ascertain the wishes and feelings of —
- (a) the child;
 - (b) the parents of the child;
 - (c) any other person who is not a parent of the child but who has parental responsibility for the child; and
 - (d) any person whose wishes and feelings the person carrying on the home considers to be relevant,
- regarding the matter to be decided.
- (3) In making any decision with respect to a child referred to in subsection (1), the person concerned shall give due consideration —
- (a) having regard to the age and understanding of the child, to the wishes and feelings of the child as the person has been able to ascertain;
 - (b) to any other wishes and feelings mentioned in subsection (2) as the person has been able to ascertain; and
 - (c) to the child's religious persuasion, racial origin and cultural and linguistic background.

Persons disqualified from carrying on, or being employed in, children's homes

- 54L. (1) A person shall not carry on, or be otherwise concerned in the management of, or have any financial interest in, a children's home if the person is disqualified from doing so by regulations made by the Cabinet under section 54O.
- (2) A person shall not employ another person who is disqualified as specified under subsection (1) in a children's home unless the person has —
- (a) disclosed to the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons the fact that that person is so disqualified; and
 - (b) obtained the written authorization of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.
- (3) Where the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons refuses to give authorization under this section, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall inform the person by a written notice which states —
- (a) the reason for the refusal; and
 - (b) the person's right to appeal against the refusal within fourteen days after the date on which the person appealing is notified of the refusal.
- (4) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of six months, or to both.
- (5) A person ("person A") does not commit an offence under subsection (2) if person A proves that person A did not know, and had no reasonable grounds for believing, that the person whom person A was employing was disqualified under this section.

Placement of children in children's home

- 54M. (1) The Department may place a child in a children's home where, based on an inspection report by the Office of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, the Department is satisfied that the children's home is satisfactorily safeguarding and promoting the welfare of the children so provided with accommodation.
- (2) Where the Department is not satisfied that the welfare of a child who is accommodated by a children's home is being satisfactorily safeguarded or promoted, the Department shall —
- (a) unless the Department considers that it would not be in the best interests of the child, take steps as are reasonably practicable to ensure that the care and accommodation of the child is undertaken by —

- (i) a parent of the child;
 - (ii) any person who is not a parent of the child but who has parental responsibility for the child;
 - (iii) a relative of the child who is at least eighteen years old;
 - (iv) a departmental foster parent; or
 - (v) a residential care home; and
- (b) consider the extent to which (if at all) it should exercise any of its functions with respect to the child.

Functions of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons in relation to children's homes

54N.(1) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall arrange for children who are accommodated by children's homes to be visited —

- (a) at least once annually; and
 - (b) at any other intervals specified by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, in the interests of their welfare.
- (2) A person authorized by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, for the purpose of enabling the Office of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons to discharge its duties under this section, may —
- (a) enter, at any reasonable time, and inspect any premises in which children are being accommodated as mentioned in subsection (1);
 - (b) visit any children there; and
 - (c) require any other person to furnish the person authorized by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons with records of a kind required to be kept by regulations made under section 54O (in whatever form they are held), or allow the person authorized by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons to inspect those records, as the person may at any time direct.
- (3) A person exercising the power conferred by subsection (2) shall, if asked to do so, produce the relevant duly authenticated document showing the person's authority to exercise that power.
- (4) A person authorized to exercise the power to inspect records conferred by subsection (2) —

- (a) shall be entitled at any reasonable time to have access to, and inspect and check the operation of, any computer and any associated apparatus or material which is or has been in use in connection with the records in question; and
- (b) may require —
 - (i) the person by whom or on whose behalf the computer is or has been so used; or
 - (ii) any person having charge of, or otherwise concerned with the operation of, the computer, apparatus or material, to afford the person authorized any assistance as the person may reasonably require.
- (5) A person who intentionally obstructs another person in the exercise of any power conferred by subsection (2) or (4) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of six months, or to both.

Regulations as to children's homes

54O. (1) The Cabinet may make regulations providing for —

- (a) the disqualification of persons from carrying on, or being otherwise concerned in the management of, or having any financial interest in, children's homes;
 - (b) the placing of children in children's homes;
 - (c) requiring every child who is accommodated by a children's home to be visited by an officer of the Office of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons —
 - (i) in prescribed circumstances; and
 - (ii) on specified occasions or within specified periods;
 - (d) imposing requirements on the Office of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons or officers of the Office of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, in the carrying out of functions under section 54N;

“PART 11A - Commissioner for Children and Young PersonsEstablishment and appointment of Commissioner for Children and Young Persons

- 83A.(1) There is established the Office of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.
- (2) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall be appointed by the Governor, acting after consultation with the Premier and the Leader of the Opposition.
 - (3) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall be appointed for a period of seven years and shall not be eligible for re-appointment.
 - (4) No person shall be qualified to be appointed as Commissioner for Children and Young Persons if the person is or has been within the preceding three years —
 - (a) an elected member of the Parliament; or
 - (b) the holder of any office in any political party.
 - (5) The appointment of a person as Commissioner for Children and Young Persons is not valid if the person is disqualified under subsection (4).
 - (6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), the validity of anything done by a person appointed as the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons is not affected by the fact that the person is or becomes disqualified under subsection (4).
 - (7) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may at any time resign office by instrument in writing addressed to the Governor and the resignation shall take effect as from the date of receipt by the Governor.

- (8) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may —
- (a) have the appointment of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons revoked by the Governor if the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons —
 - (i) becomes of unsound mind or becomes permanently unable to perform the functions of Commissioner for Children and Young Persons by reason of ill health;
 - (ii) becomes bankrupt;
 - (iii) fails to carry out the functions conferred on the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons by this Act or any other Act; or
 - (iv) brings the Office of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons into disrepute; or
 - (b) be dismissed on the same basis and in accordance with the same procedure as a chief officer under the Public Service Management Act (2018 Revision).
- (9) If the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons is temporarily unable to perform the functions of Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, by reason of illness, temporary absence from the Islands, leave or any other reason the Governor considers appropriate, the Governor may appoint by instrument in writing a suitably qualified officer in the Office of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons to act as Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.

Functions of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons

- 83B.(1) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall perform the following functions —
- (a) keeping under review the adequacy and effectiveness of services provided for children and young persons by relevant authorities;
 - (b) promoting awareness and understanding of the rights of children and young persons;
 - (c) providing human rights education for relevant authorities or other persons that work with, or on behalf of children and young persons;
 - (d) promoting harmonisation of legislation and policy with the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, and any other European or international treaties or conventions, protecting the rights of children and young persons, which extend or apply to the Islands;

- (e) providing advice and recommendations on the rights of children and young persons;
 - (f) bringing any matter relating to the rights of children and young persons to the attention of the Government or any relevant authority;
 - (g) looking into, or formally investigating any matter relating to the rights of children and young persons;
 - (h) bringing, intervening in, or assisting in relation to, legal proceedings or complaints against relevant authorities;
 - (i) monitoring the implementation in the Islands of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and any other European or international treaties or conventions, protecting the rights of children or young persons, which extend or apply to the Islands;
 - (j) encouraging the ratification of, and implementation by the Islands of any European or international treaties or conventions, protecting the rights of children and young persons, which have not been extended, or do not apply to the Islands;
 - (k) reporting on the Government's implementation and monitoring of the rights of children and young persons; and
 - (l) publishing a report on any matter looked into, or formally investigated, by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.
- (2) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may delegate to a suitably qualified officer in the Office of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons by instrument in writing any function of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons under this Act or any other law, other than the power to delegate under this section.
- (3) The instrument referred to in subsection (2) may provide for the extent of the delegation and the delegation may be revoked by instrument in writing at any time.

General powers of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons

83C. The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, in performing the functions of the office under section 83B, may —

- (a) enter into an agreement;
- (b) acquire, hold and dispose of movable or immoveable property;
- (c) sue and be sued in any civil proceedings;
- (d) if charged with an offence, defend criminal proceedings;

- (e) determine and charge reasonable sums for anything done or provided by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons in the discharge of, or in connection with, the functions of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons; and
- (f) generally, do anything reasonably necessary or expedient for or incidental to any of the functions of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.

Powers of investigation

- 83D.(1) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may conduct a formal investigation if the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, having considered the available evidence on, and any information received about, a matter, is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the matter to be investigated raises an issue of particular significance to —
- (a) children and young persons generally;
 - (b) particular groups of children and young persons; or
 - (c) the rights of children and young persons.
- (2) The purpose of an investigation by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons is to ascertain whether injustice has been caused by improper, unreasonable or inadequate administrative conduct on the part of a relevant authority subject to this Act.
- (3) In investigating any matter leading to, resulting from or connected with a decision of a Minister, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall not inquire into or question the policy of the Minister in accordance with which the decision was made.
- (4) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may investigate any course of conduct or anything done or omitted by any person in the exercise of administrative functions respecting any business of the Government not being functions concerned with any action or matter set out in Schedule 3A.
- (5) An investigation by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall not be prevented by any enactment other than the Constitution to the effect, howsoever expressed, that any matter or thing shall be final and conclusive or shall not be disputed, reviewed or called in question.
- (6) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may require a person —
- (a) to give evidence on any matter within the terms of reference of a formal investigation; or

- (b) to produce documents in the custody or control of that person which have a bearing on any such matter, and the person may choose to be supported by a representative.
- (7) Where the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons requires a person to give evidence, or produce a document under subsection (6), the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall give the person notice in writing specifying —
 - (a) the time and place at which the person is to attend before the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons and the particular subjects concerning which that person is required to give evidence; or
 - (b) the documents, or types of documents, which that person is to produce, the date by which that person is to produce them, and the particular subjects concerning which they are required.
- (8) The notice under subsection (8) shall be given —
 - (a) by sending it by post addressed to that person at the person's usual or last known address, or the person's registered or principal office;
 - (b) by delivery to that person's address (including delivery by a courier or messenger service);
 - (c) by electronic communication; or
 - (d) in the case of an individual, by being handed personally to the individual in question, or to the individual's representative, if any.
- (9) The power in subsection (6)(b) to require a person to produce documents includes, in relation to documents kept by means of a computer or other electronic device for the storage of information, power to require the person to produce documents in a legible form.
- (10) A person complies with a requirement to produce a document if that person produces a copy of, or an extract of the relevant part of, the document.
- (11) Any document required to be produced by a relevant authority under subsection (6)(b) may be redacted if any of the following apply in relation to any information contained in that document —
 - (a) the information would be privileged from production in legal proceedings on the ground of legal professional privilege; or
 - (b) the information is legal advice given by or on behalf of the Attorney General or the Director of Public Prosecutions.

- (12) Notwithstanding the generality of this section, the powers of investigation under this section do not apply to assessments and investigations of reports of abuse or neglect of a child under section 32A, which are to be dealt with by the Department.
- (13) If the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons finds, during the conduct of investigations or on conclusion of such investigations, that there is evidence of a breach of duty, misconduct or a criminal offence on the part of an officer of any relevant authority, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall refer the matter to the person or body of persons competent to take such disciplinary or other proceeding as may be appropriate against that officer and in all such cases shall lay a special report before the Parliament.

United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child

- 83E. (1) In discharging functions under this Act, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall —
- (a) in relation to children, have regard to the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and its Optional Protocols as extended to the Islands (as may be amended from time to time and as extended to the Islands); and
 - (b) in relation to children and young persons —
 - (i) have regard to the best interests of children and young persons as a primary consideration;
 - (ii) encourage others to put forward the best interests of children and young persons as a primary consideration whenever decisions are made in respect of, or have a bearing on children or young persons;
 - (iii) have regard to, and encourage others to have regard to, the views of children and young persons on all matters affecting them, considered in the light of the age and maturity of the child or young person, as applicable; and
 - (iv) have regard to any other European or international treaties or conventions, protecting the rights of children and young persons, which extend or apply to the Islands.
- (2) The Optional Protocols referred to in subsection (1)(a) are —
- (a) the Optional Protocol on the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography, adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession by General Assembly resolution A/RES/54/263 of 25th May 2000 and entered into force on 18th January 2002; and

- (b) the Optional Protocol on the involvement of children in armed conflict, adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession by General Assembly resolution A/RES/54/263 of 25th May 2000 and entered into force on 12th February 2002.
- (3) The Cabinet may by regulations amend this section.

Involving children and young persons

- 83F. (1) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall take reasonable steps to involve children and young persons in the work of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.
- (2) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall, in particular, take reasonable steps to —
- (a) ensure that children and young persons are made aware of —
 - (i) the functions of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons;
 - (ii) the ways in which they may communicate with the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons; and
 - (iii) the ways in which the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may respond to any issues which they raise; and
 - (b) consult children and young persons, relevant authorities and persons working with, and on behalf of children and young persons on —
 - (i) the discharge of the functions of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons; and
 - (ii) the work to be undertaken by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.

Salary and emoluments

- 83G. (1) There shall be paid to the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons an annual salary, emoluments and benefits as are established under the Public Service Management Act (2018 Revision).
- (2) The salary, emoluments and benefits of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall not be altered to the disadvantage of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons during the period of the appointment of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, except by mutual agreement.

Independence

- 83H. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Constitution relating to the powers of the Director of Public Prosecutions and except as provided for in this Act, in the exercise of the functions of Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall not be subject to the direction or control of any other person or authority.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons —
- (a) shall be subject to the Public Service Management Act (2018 Revision), including as it relates to personnel arrangements of the Office of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons; and
 - (b) may adopt policies and directions by the Deputy Governor as the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons sees fit to the extent that these do not compromise the independence of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.
- (3) For the purpose of establishing the budget of the Office of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall report and be accountable for expenditure to the Oversight Committee of the Parliament.

Staff

- 83I. (1) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall appoint officers in accordance with the Public Service Management Act (2018 Revision) as are necessary to enable the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons to carry out the functions of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.
- (2) The officers appointed under subsection (1) shall be public officers and matters relating to the personnel arrangements of the officers, including discipline and dismissal, shall be governed by the Public Service Management Act (2018 Revision).

Advisers

- 83J. (1) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may obtain advice from any person who, in the opinion of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, is qualified to give it, in order to assist in the discharge of the functions of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.
- (2) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may pay to any person from whom advice under subsection (1) is obtained, reasonable fees or allowances as the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may determine.

- (3) Any fees or allowances paid under subsection (2) shall be paid out of the funds appropriated to the Office of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.

Advisory panel

- 83K.(1) The Cabinet shall appoint an advisory panel which shall consist of the persons referred to in Schedule 3B.
- (2) The advisory panel —
 - (a) shall provide the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons with advice and assistance relating to the discharge of the functions of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons generally;
 - (b) shall assist the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons in the preparation of the strategic plan and the annual report referred to in this Part, and the extent of the assistance to be provided shall be determined by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons; and
 - (c) may give its views to the Governor as to the suitability of a person for appointment to the Office of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons.
 - (3) The Cabinet may make regulations prescribing —
 - (a) the criteria and process for appointment to the advisory panel;
 - (b) the terms and conditions that apply to an appointment; and
 - (c) the procedures of the advisory panel.

Provision of reports and other documents

- 83L. Subject to the anonymity requirements in section 83O(2) and (3), if the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons considers it necessary or appropriate, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may —
- (a) produce in a form or manner as the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons determines, reports, documents or other information about, or in connection with the discharge of the functions of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons;
 - (b) publish the reports, documents or other information referred to in paragraph (a); and
 - (c) in the case of a report, cause a copy of each report prepared under this section, to be laid before the Parliament.

Strategic plans

- 83M.(1) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, in respect of each four-year period, shall prepare a plan (referred to in this section as a “strategic plan”) setting out how the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons proposes to perform the functions of the office during the four-year period.
- (2) Subject to subsection (5), the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall cause a copy of the strategic plan to be laid before the Parliament no later than the beginning of the four-year period to which the plan relates.
- (3) At any time during a four-year period the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons may review the strategic plan for the period and cause a copy of the revised strategic plan to be laid before the Parliament as soon as practicable after being revised.
- (4) In preparing or reviewing a strategic plan, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall consult with any relevant authority insofar as it is reasonably practicable to do so.
- (5) Where the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons is appointed within, or as at the expiry of the four-year period, the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall cause a copy of the strategic plan to be laid before the Parliament no later than six months after the date of the appointment of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, and the four-year period is to begin as at the date of appointment.
- (6) Subsection (3) applies in the case of a strategic plan referred to in subsection (5).
- (7) In this section, “four-year period” means the period of four years beginning on the date the Children (Amendment) Act, 2024 comes into force, and, subject to subsection (5), each subsequent period of four years.

Annual reports

- 83N.(1) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall prepare annually a report (the “annual report”) on the discharge of the functions of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons during the financial year.
- (2) The annual report shall include —
- (a) a review of issues identified by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons in the financial year as being relevant to children and young persons;

- (b) a review of the functions discharged by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons in the financial year;
 - (c) any recommendations made by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons arising out of the functions discharged;
 - (d) an overview of work to be undertaken by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons in the next financial year, including the strategy for involving children and young persons in the work of the Commissioner; and
 - (e) the accounts of the Office of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons for the financial year.
- (3) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall cause a copy of the annual report to be laid before the Parliament no later than six months after the end of the financial year to which the plan relates.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, “financial year” means a year ending on 31st December.

Publication and anonymity requirements

- 83O.(1) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall publish a report, strategic plan and annual report laid before the Parliament under section 83D(13), 83L, 83M and 83N, respectively.
- (2) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall ensure, so far as is reasonable and practicable having regard to the subject matter, that any report, document, statement, or other information which may, or is required to be produced, provided, published or otherwise publicised under any provision of this Act, does not name or identify (whether by reference to any particular characteristics, or otherwise) any child or young person, or group of children or young persons, referred to in it.
- (3) Apart from identifying any public authority or any legal person other than a public authority, unless the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons determines that it is necessary to do so, a report, strategic plan or annual report referred to in subsection (1) —
- (a) shall not name any individual person; and
 - (b) may omit any particulars which are likely to identify the person concerned and which, in the opinion of the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons, may be omitted without impairing the effectiveness of the report, strategic plan or annual report in question.

- (4) The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons shall take reasonable steps to ensure that the content of any report, document or other information, whether or not published, takes account, so far as practicable, of the age, understanding and usual language of any children or young persons by whom it is intended that the report or other document will be read, and of the effect of any disabilities they may have.

Immunity

83P. The Commissioner for Children and Young Persons and any person employed, engaged or appointed by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons under this Act, shall not be liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge of the respective functions of those persons under this Act or any other Act, unless it is shown that the act or omission was negligent or in bad faith.

Indemnity

83Q. The Government shall indemnify the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons and any person employed, engaged or appointed by the Commissioner for Children and Young Persons under this Act against all claims, damages, costs, charges or expenses incurred by those respective persons in the discharge or purported discharge of their functions under this Act or any other Act, except claims, damages, costs, charges or expenses caused by the negligence or bad faith of those persons.

Regulations

83R. Notwithstanding section 95(1) and (2), the Cabinet may make regulations subject to affirmative resolution for giving effect to the provisions of this Part.”.

Repeal and substitution of section 88A - attendance in court by parent

- 51. The principal Act is amended by repealing section 88A and substituting the following section —

“Attendance in court by parent, guardian, and any person with parental responsibility

- 88A.(1) Where under this Act a child is brought before a court, subject to subsection (2), the parents, the guardian and any person with parental responsibility for the child shall attend —
- (a) the court at all stages of the proceedings; and
 - (b) any parenting programme ordered by the court.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the court is satisfied that —

- (a) it would be unreasonable to require the attendance of the parents, the guardian or a person with parental responsibility for the child; or
 - (b) the attendance of the parents, the guardian or a person with parental responsibility for the child would not be in the best interests of the child.
- (3) Pursuant to subsection (1), the court may, in whatever manner it sees fit, enforce the attendance of the parents, the guardian or any person with parental responsibility for the child.”.

Amendment of section 90 - privacy for children involved in certain proceedings

52. The principal Act is amended in section 90 as follows —

- (a) in subsection (5), by deleting the definition of the word “publish” and substituting the following definition —
 - “ “publish” includes —
