 - d) otherwise indicated an interest in the monies as evidenced by a memorandum concerning the monies written by the account provider.
2. Subject to the Dormant Accounts Law, 2010 (as amended) on the transfer of the monies in the dormant account to the Government, the dormant account holder will no longer have any right against the account provider to repayment of the monies transferred, but the dormant account holder will have against the Government such right to repayment of the monies transferred that the dormant account holder would have had against the account provider.
3. Any interested person should contact the account provider mentioned above to establish if that person is a dormant account holder.

¹ Interest paid by an account provider on monies held by the account provider shall not be regarded as a transaction which increases the amount held by the account provider pursuant to section 4(4) of the Dormant Accounts Law, 2010 (as amended).
