Foundational Business Communication Programme gains international recognition

We are thrilled to announce that the Foundational Business Communication programme, developed by Facilitator for Formal Education Charla Hobson for CSC has been granted “Assured” status by City & Guilds.

City & Guilds Assured status is a globally recognized mark of quality, demonstrating that a course meets the highest standards of education and training. The rigorous assessment process evaluates the course's structure, content, delivery, and outcomes, ensuring that it aligns with international best practices.
